Cancellation by the traveller

Loss of monies paid applies to all cancelled reservations. The date of tour cancellation is the date on which Judy Arpana Pilgrimage receives written notice of the cancellation.

The loss of monies paid is as follows (per person):

90 days or more PTD: loss of deposit

45-89 days PTD: 50% of total booking cost

Less than 45 days PTD: 90% of total booking cost

No refunds will be made if you voluntarily leave a tour for any reason after the tour has begun.

Refunds will be at the discretion of Judy Arpana Pilgrimage if you are involuntarily forced to leave a tour for any reason. No refunds will be made for any accommodation, transport, sightseeing, meals or services not utilised. Note that loss of monies paid for airline tickets may apply, and is separate to any Judy Arpana Pilgrimage fees.

You are strongly advised to take out cancellation insurance at the time of booking your tour. Please check with your travel insurance policy regarding cancellations. Most policies will offer cover for tour costs associated with legitimate cancellations, but not for a change of heart.

Cancellation by Judy Arpana Pilgrimage

Judy Arpana Pilgrimage reserves the right to cancel any journey before it is guaranteed to run, but will not cancel a tour less than 45 days prior to departure. A tour is guaranteed to run once it has the minimum number of paid bookings. Judy Arpana Pilgrimage reserves the right to cancel any tour at any time prior to departure due to terrorism, natural disasters, political instability or any other events that would jeopardise the safety of the travellers or compromise the integrity of the tour.

If Judy Arpana Pilgrimage cancels a tour within 45 days PTD, you may choose to hold a credit for a future tour or receive a full refund. North India Pilgrimage is not responsible for any incidental expenses that you may incur as a result of your booking, such as visas, vaccinations, non-refundable flights, etc.
